St Peters GAA Club Notes

Results from the last week

St Peters 1-8 vs Trim 0-13 – Senior Hurlers

The game was level many times throughout including half time but a 2 point defeat in the end.

A lot of positives to take from the game and lads showed great commitment and intensity.

Dunboyne: S Moran, K Doyle, N Watters, J Finlay, E Ryan, F O'Neill, J Gilmartin, K Smith, A Watters, J Mitchell, D Gilmartin, P O'Doherty, C Gilmartin, N Hacket, N Smyth, C Smyth, J O'Conner, D Finley, S Cline, B O'Dwyer, C Ahern, D Dunne

St Peters 1-12 vs Wolfe Tones 1-09 – Division 3 Hurling League

Dunboyne made a good start to the 2019 Div 3 hurling league and finished stronger to claim the points in their opening games against Wolfe Tones in Kilberry this evening.

The Scores were level at 1-6 each at the break with Brian O'Hara registering a trademark 1st half goal for Dunboyne. Both sides defended very well and struggled to score in the early part of the 2nd half. However Dunboyne's blend of youth and experience, including Darragh Finlay who was making his adult hurling debut, finished stronger and ran out deserving 3 point winners.

Team & Scorers: Cian Smyth, Darragh Finlay, Shane Moran, Colm Aherne, Conor Rohan, Darren Dunne, Danny Kane, Oisín Fitzmaurice, Mark O'Connor (0-1), Johnny O'Connor (0-1), John Watters (0-3), Michael Reilly (0-1), Brian O'Hara (1-0), Sean Moran (0-4), Ben O'Dwyer (0-1). Sub - Sean Melia (0-1) for Conor Rohan

Meath County Panels

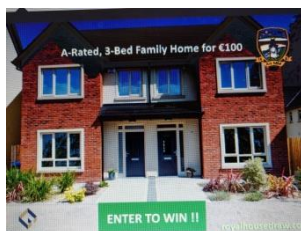

Our Meath men and club reps are out again this weekend away to Cork so best of luck to all involved. After their great win over Armagh we wish them all the best of luck.

Meath ladies are playing round 3 of the league this weekend at home in Dunganny vs Roscommon on Saturday at 2pm

Well done to our Minor Meath ladies who had a great win over Dublin last weekend. Our club reps did us proud and a special mention for Emma Duggan who scored an impressive 3 goals and 6 points.
